of Avila
Catholic Church

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 11, 2012

The LORD keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.

— Psalm 146:7

Parish Mission Statement

The Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people.

We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.

Food Pantry Clothing Drive

The weather has already started to turn cold. Snow and ice are only a short time away.

We have historically provided our clients with some clothes to help them keep warm during the colder months. This year we will operate a clothing drive during November so that we can distribute warm clothes by early December. This year we want to focus on keeping our client's head and hands warm. We will be providing our clients with gloves, mittens, scarves, and hats during our clothing drive.

While there may be a need for coats, we typically do not get enough coats to provide each client a warm coat, so please donate gently used coats to other service providers, such as the St. Vincent de Paul Center at Halsted and Webster.

There are two ways you can help. The first is by donating gently used items to the campaign. There is a large box at the back of church to accept your donations. The second way is to provide a donation that we will use to purchase new items for our clients. We appreciate any help you can provide.

Please contact Bernadette Diaz at bernadette_diaz@comcast.net or Dave Hilko at dahilko@aol.com with any questions.

Today's Readings

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

As Christians, we hear a lot about the witness and service that we are called to render to the poor among us. However, the poor also have a witness and a service to render to us. Like the actions of the widow in today's Gospel, the openness and generosity of many of those who are poor, even in the midst of their own poverty, bear witness to the fact that, ultimately, we can depend only on God. Giving one's all witnesses that God will give all to anyone who trusts in divine goodness.

The poor or disadvantaged also serve. They serve judgment on our individual and corporate ways of acting. If people are sleeping in our streets, that is a judgment on our priorities regarding others. At the same time, the poor can act as mediators of salvation. When they care for others they can redeem our indifference and insensibility, lead us to care as well, and save us from ourselves. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Treasures from Our Tradition

New religious faith gives fresh lenses for viewing human customs, and the wisdom to transform them. In the ancient world, the Romans feared the dead. Funeral customs were designed to hasten the departure of souls to the next world. Cremation was the rule, although burial increased in popularity in the second century. Procession from the place of death to the place of cremation or burial was the most important part of the funeral. Those who carried the funeral bier carried it low, close to the ground, to promote the soul's departure to the nether world.

Christians, on the other hand, did not fear the dead, but cherished them as they consigned them to Christ's love and protection. Gradually, they began to reject customs rooted in fear. Christians carried their dead to their resting places singing, with the bier carried high, away from the ground and toward the heavens. For the Christian, the grave was a sign of hope and a place of remembrance. Superstitious Romans feared burial places, and so the Christians cherished them as places of remembrance and prayer, and in time, even celebrated the Eucharist there. In November, many of us visit the cemetery for prayer and the autumn clean-up. By cherishing our dead, we are responding in faith to a vital part of our Christian tradition. — James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Los Pobres

Cristo se entregó una vez para quitar el pecado

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Como cristianos, sabemos mucho sobre el testimonio y el servicio que estamos llamados a prestar a los pobres entre nosotros. Sin embargo, los pobres también tienen un testimonio y un servicio que prestarnos. Al igual que las acciones de la viuda en el Evangelio de hoy, la apertura y la generosidad de muchos de los que son pobres, aun en medio de su propia pobreza, dan testimonio del hecho de que, en definitiva, podemos depender solo de Dios. Si damos todo es un testimonio de que Dios dará todo a cualquier persona que confíe en la bondad divina.

Los pobres o desfavorecidos también prestan servicios. Pasan juicio a nuestra manera individual y corporativa de actuar. Si personas que están durmiendo en la calle, eso es un juicio sobre las prioridades respecto a los demás. Al mismo tiempo, los pobres pueden actuar como mediadores de la salvación. Cuando cuidan a los demás pueden redimir nuestra indiferencia e insensibilidad, llevarnos a ser cuidadosos también, y a salvarnos de nosotros mismos. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Antes de regresar a la derecha del Padre, Jesús prometió estar con sus discípulos siempre. Esta es una promesa que Él ha mantenido de diversas maneras, estando con nosotros por su Espíritu, por su palabra, en nuestro corazón. Pero Jesús también desea estar con sus siervos de una manera física y real, es por eso que en su Última Cena tomó pan y vino consagrándolos como su cuerpo y sangre.

La Eucaristía que Jesús inauguró el Jueves Santo continúa consagrándose día tras día en las manos de sacerdotes santos y ni tan santos. No es la dignidad del cura que importa sino, la generosidad de Cristo que desea estar con sus fieles. Uno de estos fieles, el joven uruguayo Walter Elías Chango Rondeau, (1921-1939) en sus pocos años de vida encontró consuelo en el hecho de que Dios se entrega a sí mismo en la comunión.

Según testigos, Walter animaba a sus compañeros a la reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Hablaba tan elocuentemente del Santísimo Sacramento, que parecía sacerdote. Siendo laico, él supo ejercer su sacerdocio bautismal.

A Friar-like Attitude

Most churchgoers don't mind and actually want to financially support their church. Another group of churchgoers enjoy volunteering for various ministries that benefit the operations of the parish. Yet others are motivated to take to the streets and be involved in ministries that service people not necessary involved in the church but that push the mission of the church forward.

All this volunteering and doing is fostering the Friar in one. And there are many benefits to doing such good work. There is, however, the "attitude" that lies behind the doing. A question to ask every now and again is, "Is all this doing simply for our own edification? Or is this 'doing' pointing us to a place spiritually that is beyond our self and making God center stage?"

It is a difficult question to ask and to reflect upon. I personally like any and all compliments anyone wants to give me. I certainly like to be recognized and appreciated. I quietly love it when my ego is fanned. But does this make God center stage?

Stephen of Muret writes, "The foolish and the wise may differ in many respects, but certainly in this; when something good is done, fools see their own action, not God's." Stephen of Muret is telling us there is something more to doing good works and working toward our salvation. There is an attitude to be developed that is more critical than the work itself. This attitude is that it is not about me, my ego and my edification. It is about letting go of the "me" and attaching to the presence of God in the world. Letting go of "me," adopting an attitude that is totally for the other, is not only Christ-like, but is also making the presence of Christ a reality in the world.

Defend Human Dignity Nov. 10-11

In 2010, 46.2 million Americans lived at or below the poverty line, an increase of more than 2 million since 2009. With many families living one paycheck away from financial instability, there is little hope that more Americans won't face poverty in the years to come.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) funds programs in communities across the United States where people living in poverty join together to identify problems, make decisions and find ways to improve their lives and their neighborhoods.

The CCHD accomplishes its goal by making society more just by empowering the poor. Every year CCHD funds projects in Chicago and across the United States to help poor communities end the conditions that perpetuate poverty.

Participating in CCHD next weekend is a way to help strengthen our commitment to social justice for our communities. To learn more about CCHD programs go to www.archchicago.org/cchd

Help Bring Clean Water to Haiti

Sponsor Fr. Frank as He Walks the Camino de Santiago

In this country, we take so many things for granted. It is difficult for us to imagine living our lives without sufficient clean water. When we want water, all we have to do is turn on the faucet.

Imagine a poor country like Haiti where 40 percent of its 10 million people do not have access to a dependable supply of clean water, where the walk to the faucet is an average of 5 miles away, walking an average of 10 miles per day for clean water.

Our goal is to raise $20,000 for Haiti; this money will be used to build wells to provide clean and accessible water. If we raise more than our goal of $20,000, that money will be used to provide healthcare for the people of Haiti.

All donations Fr. Frank raises through sponsorship of his pilgrimage will go to Zanmi Lasanté —Paris, a social justice agency who will have wells built in Haiti by Haitian labor and fund other education and development in impoverished rural Haiti.

You can help. Sponsor Fr. Frank and bring clean, accessible drinking water to those that need it. To donate go to the Give Central QR code on the right or visit st-teresa.net and follow the link. Or call the St. Teresa of Avila office at (773) 528-6650 for more information.

Learning from Widows

Psalm 146, the responsorial psalm for today's Mass, is one of 12 "Hallelujah Psalms." These psalms are so named because they begin and end by praising God. The middle of Psalm 146, the part we read today, affirms God's faithful love for his people. God gives food to the hungry, opens the eyes of the blind and upholds the orphan and the widow. The message is clear: There is hope for the downtrodden.

In today's readings we encounter the downtrodden. Our readings from the Hebrew and Christian Testaments focus on the faith journey of widows. In the first reading, Elijah intercepts a widow as she is preparing a last meal for herself and her son. With Elijah's help, this widow stops despairing and begins to hope. In the Gospel, a poor widow demonstrates her faith by putting all she has to live on into the treasury. How did she arrive at this place of faithful surrender? How do we make this same journey through despair toward hope? These women have much to teach us.

When Elijah cries out to the widow, he is a voice in the wilderness. She is lost, forsaken and alone. Unable to provide for herself or her son, she is ready to die. In response to Elijah's request for food, she does not hide her despair. She frankly tells Elijah, "As the Lord your God lives I have nothing" (1 Kings 17:12). Acknowledging despair is the first step on the journey toward hope. J.R.R. Tolkien, author of The Lord of the Rings, said it best: "Oft hope is born when all is forlorn."

Our journey toward hope begins with acknowledgement of our despair, but also a willingness to act on faith.

Hope is cultivated when acknowledgement of despair is followed by courageous, fearless action. In both cases, the women let go of their only means of sustenance. The first woman gave her food; the second woman gave her money. By any logic, this doesn't make sense. Yet, in the midst of this faithful foolishness, fear is pushed away and hope is given a place to take root. "The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail" (1 Kings 17:16). Jesus praises the widow, who tithes from her want, as more faithful than those who gave more (Mark 12:43-44).

How do these stories relate to our own lives? Fearless self-examination exposes our own areas of hopelessness. We are all downtrodden in one shape or form. Our journey toward hope begins with acknowledgement of our despair, but also a willingness to act on faith. If the action that is required seems foolish, we must have the courage to continue. Like the two widows, often we need to risk what little we have so we can open ourselves to what God wants to provide.

Psalm 146 is a prayer we can carry into our week, praying it again and again. What do you hunger for? How are you imprisoned? Where are your blind spots? Once you know the answers to these questions, go and talk to the widows. Ask them how they had the courage to take action in the midst of their darkness.

Prayer takes many forms. There are prayers of adoration and prayers of thanksgiving, contrition and petition. Underlying all prayer is an attitude of trust and gratitude for God's never-failing love. Prayer begins and ends with hope. A hopeful prayer washes away all fear and despair. Hope prompts us to open our hands in expectation. In opening our hands, we first let go of everything we are clinging to for ourselves, and the pride and self-sufficiency that can keep us from receiving what God is eager to give us.
