Lenten Workshops from the Religious Education Center

Sunday February 17th 10:30am—11:45am	Prayer of the Child Children's way of praying is different than adults. Learn how the study of the spiritual potential of children has transformed adult spirituality.
Sunday February 24th 10:30am — 11:45am	Praying with Scripture and Contemplative Prayer Lectio Divina is an ancient form of praying with Scripture. Learn how to pray using this method and how it naturally leads to contemplative prayer.
Sunday March 3rd 10:30am — 11:45am	Overview of the Bible – Understanding the Story Line Having a comprehensive understanding of Scripture helps make the Scriptures more accessible and liturgy more meaningful. Discover the 14 (out of 73) books of the Bible that provide the chronological story line.
Sunday March 10th 10:30am — 11:45am	Theology of the Body Theology of the Body is an exciting perspective on the relationship between our bodies and our spirituality.
Sunday March 17th 10:30am — 11:45am	Spiritual Direction and the Sacrament of Reconciliation There is much misunderstanding surrounding the history and practice of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Learn about spiritual direction and how reconciliation is practiced today.
Saturday March 23rd 2:00pm — 5:00pm	Celebrate Family Easter Traditions (in the Parish Center) Bring your entire family to join in: Decorating Lamb Cakes, Coloring Easter Eggs, Making Easter Baskets, Weaving Palms and Decorating Easter Cookies
Sunday March 24th 10:30am — 11:45am	Palm Weaving and the meaning behind our Easter Traditions Many of our Catholic traditions are misunderstood. Learn the history and meaning behind the rituals we participate in.

These workshops are free but require online registration by the day before each workshop. Please email Kate Lynch at kolynchdre@gmail.com or call her at (773) 528-6650 x232 for registration information.
