Come into the Light

Almost 30 years ago I suffered a serious depression — hospitalization, meds, therapy. It was a dark year, followed by a dim couple of years, eventually followed by a kind of new birth into the light. I look now on that time as one of immense pain, but during which I learned about being a faith-filled and grateful person.

There is only one thing I miss from that time: the full weight of the scriptures. Never before did the psalms hit me right where I live: My God, why have you abandoned me? Only in God is my soul at rest. Or today's psalm: The Lord lifts up all those who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

Never since has today's Gospel resonated within me as it did during that dark time: Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

When nothing hurts, when our loved ones are safe, when the sun is shining, when we're happy and we know it, the invitation to unburden oneself and rest in Jesus just isn't as compelling. It's not so much a matter of faith, as attention.

Yet when we've been around a little while, we know that the bright times will inevitably give way to the darker times. We'll get back test results and they won't be good. Someone we love will hurt or hurt us. We eventually must lose our work, our home, our health. Diminishment is the name of the game after a certain age. Yet our faith is that the dark must give way to the light. There are no shadows without the sun. It will be all right in the end ... and if it's not all right, it's not the end.

During our personal bright

During our personal bright times it's important for us to remember that someone in our company hurts. Someone is hearing today's Gospel not with a hard heart but with a broken heart...

times it's important for us to remember that someone in our company hurts. Someone is hearing today's Gospel not with a hard heart but with a broken heart, and they need the message ... desperately.

There are also people we may not know, people we may never meet, who are longing for this invitation, who need an easier yoke and a lighter burden. On this weekend that citizens of the United States are taken up with Independence Day celebrations, I think of another invitation that so many have wept with gratitude to read: Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me. I lift my lamp beside the golden door!

These words are part of the poem by Emma Lazarus inscribed on the base of the Statue of Liberty, and many of our ancestors read them and wept with relief and gratitude. We are a nation of immigrants, one that not only tolerates but glories in the diverse heritages of our citizens.

We are a hyphenated people: African-Americans, German-Americans, Italian-Americans, Chinese-Americans.

But do we stand with Lady Liberty and speak these words to today's "tempest-tost" refugees? Is our lamp lit and held high by the golden door ... or are we hiding it under a bushel? Or, worse, has our light been snuffed out by fear or greed or inattention?

During the bright times when nothing hurts and our loved ones are safe, it is tempting to forget that for many, the words of today's Gospel, and those of Emma Lazarus, are words of hope. And only we who believe, only we who have found a home, can make these words a reality.

We are the hands, the feet, the voice of Christ. And those of us who are citizens of a country founded on hospitality, and identified the world over as a haven ... we have a unique opportunity to make light the burden and help the weary find rest.

Finance Council Meeting Minutes March 17, 2014

Attendance:

Bill Mack (Chair)	Yes	Jack Halpin	Yes
Jane Bronson	No	Jane Ott	Yes
Andrew Deye	Yes	Fr. Frank	Yes
Steve Fortino	Yes	Erica Saccucci	Yes
Becky Francis	No	Justin Peters	Yes
Dave Hilko	Yes

Key Discussion:

Erica provided the financials and the Council reviewed them. Administrative Expenses are being watched along with the line item Maintenance & Building Repairs.

The Capital Campaign, Building Faith Together has raised to date $580,000. Discussion arose around the realistic goal for the entire project. Justin with his experience in capital construction has seen an average increase of 10% from initial estimates. A contingency of $100,000 will ensure that the project will be completed efficiently and cover any unanticipated building issues that may arise. This will bring the amount of the project to $1.4 million.

The Land Sale is under contract and anticipated to close in mid June. During the last Council meeting in February parishioners were able to bring up concerns to the committee regarding how the money would be used from the sale. At this March's meeting, it was agreed that of the anticipated return on the sale of $2.9 million we have designated:

- $100k for the contingency on the building renovation and that any costs over $1.4 million will have to go to Finance Council for approval
- $90k for repairs to Parish Center to be in compliance with the Protecting God's Children directive;
- $110k for repairs on the roof, gutters, and air conditioning in the rectory;
- The remaining $2.6 million will be designated for future capital endeavors.

The Council discussed the best ways to be transparent to the parish during the Land Sale and the church construction. It was decided that minutes of our monthly meetings would be posted in the bulletin and St. Teresa's website.

Fr. Frank talked about the costs associated with protecting the children of the parish. Particular capital improvements must be met and are expected to cost around $90,000.

The next Council meeting will be May 19th at 7:00 pm. Please note there will not be an April meeting.

Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections, and key issues.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Confirmation is complicated, at least in its history. It arose in response to real problems deeply felt, not the least of which was the desire of the bishop to minister to all who were baptized. But it also has to do with the early crisis of how to deal with persons baptized by congregations that had broken bonds with the greater church: heretics. People reasoned that no matter how wrong-headed the minister might be, Christ would always work in the waters of baptism. No matter what, God would sweep aside all human obstacles to claim the new life in the water. They were not so sure about the ability of someone who had broken with the church to confer the Spirit.

By the fifth century, already-baptized persons coming into the church were anointed with chrism but not rebaptized. This anointing with Myron or chrism was seen as an act of reconciliation by the church, and a seal upon the commitments vowed by the newcomer. Today, we preserve this ancient practice by never “rebaptizing” Christians who have been baptized in water in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We affirm the candidates’ baptismal dignity, and we celebrate confirmation at their first reception of the Eucharist. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Toda devoción mariana debe seguir los pasos de Cristo. Y todo lo que decimos acerca de María deberíamos decirlo de nosotros como Iglesia, porque ella es nuestra madre, hermana y modelo. Si Jesús es el Hijo de Dios, María y nosotros también somos hijos e hijas de Dios. Si Jesús tiene un Sagrado Corazón que arde por amor al humano, María tiene un corazón inmaculado que arde con ese mismo amor. ¿Y nosotros?

La devoción al Inmaculado Corazón de María fue promovida por el Papa Pío XII en 1942, durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. El Papa pidió a María tres gracias para los fieles en Cristo: amor a la pureza, práctica de la vida cristiana y celo apostólico. De esta manera nuestro corazón puede llegar a ser como el de ella.

El corazón inmaculado de María es un corazón que no tiene mancha de pecado. Es un corazón que imita el Sagrado Corazón de su Hijo y Dios, Jesús. Es recuerdo de lo que nuestros corazones pueden ser. Es invitación a que nos vayamos purificando y creciendo en amor ardiente por el prójimo. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-GlZ, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Setting Aside the Weapons of War

Why, we might ask the prophet Zechariah today, would God want to banish chariots and horses? The answer follows: because they are used to violate God's reign of peace, along with the warrior's bow. In the days of Zechariah, chariots and horses were high-priced items used only for war-making. They were the aircraft carriers and nuclear missiles of his day. And for his culture, which thought of any king as being a military leader first and foremost, a king riding on a lowly beast of burden to proclaim peace without horses, chariots, and bows would have set his listeners topsy-turvy.

This lowly, beast-riding king of peace, we believe, was fulfilled in Jesus, gentle and humble of heart. In a world torn by military strife often generated by differing religious views, and even in our own lives and homes where we are often at "war" over the tiniest things, we would do well to stop and consider to what degree we are willing to be like that "king" whose way of gentleness and humility is the way for us to find rest for our weary souls.

Depongamos las Armas de la Guerra

¿Por qué, le preguntamos al profeta Zacarías hoy, quiere Dios destruir los carros y los caballos? La respuesta es: porque, junto al arco de los guerreros, se les usa para violar la paz del reino de Dios. En los días de Zacarías, carros y caballos eran bienes muy apreciados que se usaban sólo para hacer guerra. Eran los portaaviones y los misiles nucleares de hoy día. Y en esa cultura que consideraba que un rey era un jefe militar primero que todo, un rey montado en un pobre asno para proclamar la paz, sin caballos ni carros ni arcos, hubiera causado gran revuelo entre su audiencia.

Esa profecía del humilde rey de la paz, montado en un asno, nosotros creemos que se cumplió en Jesús, manso y humilde de corazón. En un mundo sacudido por la lucha militar, que frecuentemente es el resultado de divergentes creencias religiosas, y hasta nuestras propias vidas y hogares donde vamos a la guerra por la más mínima cosa, sería bueno que nos detuviéramos a pensar hasta que punto estamos dispuestos a ser como el "rey" que con su mansedumbre y humildad es el camino para que nosotros logremos encontrar descanso para nuestras almas.

Building Faith Together Collections Now $721,248

$1,320,000

We have collected $721,248 in pledges so far in our Building Faith Together campaign.

There is a “thermometer” depicting pledges collected located at the back of church that we will update in $88,000 increments.

Even though we have reached our pledge goal, we are still accepting pledges to cover unanticipated costs from changes in fees on the renovation of the church.

I pray that everyone will rejoice in the graces and hard work of so many of our fellow parishioners and make a meaningful gift that will lead us through a successful effort.

Thank you and God Bless!

Fr. Frank

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
