Amid the Chaos

“O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” (Matthew 14:31)

We’re in the midst of a roiling sea, in a boat that seems fragile, and there are howling winds and enormous waves that threaten to capsize us.

At some point in time this may describe anyone’s life — one’s parish or school or religious order; one’s business or neighborhood or family; one’s personal life as our employer tells us our job has been outsourced or downsized, or our doctor explains our test results, or we get that call in the middle of the night: “Is this the mother of ...?”

This has been the life of the community of the church many times since Jesus walked on water and it is what today’s Gospel story is about.

Jesus is there to help us negotiate the trials. As long as we keep our eyes on him, we can walk on water; that is, we can do the impossible. When we focus on the power of the winds and the depth of the waves and how wet and cold we are, then we panic and grasp and clutch and ... sink. When we give up our life to the care of Jesus, we save our life. When we grasp and clutch, we lose it. This is the counterintuitive lesson Jesus taught over and over again.

When we look back on harsh events in our lives, so harsh we thought we might not even survive, sometimes we see that these events were the making of us. And so a man I know could say, “Cancer

The trick — and the measure of the disciple — is to remember the resurrection when we are on the cross; to remember that it is Jesus whose hand is stretched out to us ...

saved my life.” A woman can say, “Lost love led to my true love.” A man who was fired found the work he was meant to do. A woman explains that when she discovered she couldn’t get pregnant, she thought her life was over. She just couldn’t bear her grief. Would she trade her adopted children — and the 20 or more she has fostered who call her Mom — for those children she never bore? “Not for a moment,” she laughs.

This is the mystery of death and resurrection, a mystery played out every day in big and small ways. The trick — and the measure of the disciple — is to remember the resurrection when we are on the cross; to remember that it is Jesus whose hand is stretched out to us in the midst of the storm.

I’m not so good at this part. Yes, I have known losses — terrible losses at the time — that led to a life filled with abundance I could not have imagined. But do I learn the lesson and apply it the next time there’s a life storm? Not so much ... but I’m getting better at it. What helps us improve? Well, age and experience help. With a bit of seasoning sometimes we check our panic and stop in the midst of the crisis of the moment to remember the crucifixions of the past that led to new life. This is why so much of our formal prayer in worship begins with remembering the great things God has done for us. Remembering and giving thanks help us trust and accept whatever happens, even as we pray for the outcome we are fervently, desperately hoping for.

Fortunately, as we’re negotiating a storm and forgetting to keep our eyes on Jesus, he does not forget to keep his eyes on us. He understands. He knows what it is to pray for “this cup to pass by.” And he knows what it is to trust: “Father, if it be your will.”

As Elijah discovered God’s presence in the “tiny whispering sound,” so with our eyes on Jesus we find the still place amid the chaos.

Fiscal Year (07/01 - 06/30) Comparison to Date

- For the 2014 Fiscal Year, Sunday and Holy Day collections are even with the 2013 Fiscal Year.
- For the 2014 fiscal year, the cost per family per week is $36 as 430 families contribute to the parish.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections, i.e. the goal is for the striped bars to exceed the black bars in the chart above.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the parish.

Please contact the Chair of the St. Teresa Finance Council, Bill Mack, at williamdmack@hotmail.com or (312) 706-4266. Bill can provide you with the latest financial status, projections, and key issues.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Over the last several weeks, the history of confirmation has been set out as a rite following baptism and preceding First Communion. Eucharist was a sacrament of spiritual maturity, attuned to the legal age of majority, which was considered to be fourteen years or so. Medieval bishops were often generous, if not especially pious, in seeing to it that children were confirmed before adulthood.

A pattern more familiar to us surfaced in the Diocese of Toulon in France in 1748, where it was decreed that “children are to be confirmed only after receiving First Communion.” This was an amazing shift in practice that undermined centuries of theology and tradition by which confirmation was seen as a bridge between font and table. The innovation swept through France and across Europe, despite constant complaints from Rome. French-trained bishops like Cheverus of Boston and Carroll of Baltimore, founders of the American church, established the practice here. The order of the sacraments was thus disrupted in France and in the United States, and remained an eccentric exception to the rule until big developments in 1910. — Rev.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Hoy celebramos la memoria del santo patrono de los cocineros, san Lorenzo. Este español del siglo tercero fue uno de siete diáconos del Papa Sixto II, en Roma. Su ministerio consistía en repartir limosnas a los pobres.

En el año 257 se pronunció una nueva persecución a los cristianos en Roma y el día 6 de agosto unos soldados romanos asesinaron al Papa y a cuatro de sus diáconos. Lorenzo, cuyo nombre significa laureado o premiado, fue arrestado tras la batalla y llevado ante el alcalde de Roma. Este mandó traer todas las riquezas de la Iglesia, pero Lorenzo ya hacía tiempo que las había vendido para dar el dinero a los más necesitados. No obstante, se marchó de la presencia del alcalde para luego llegar con él, acompañado de gente pobre y enferma, insistiendo que ellos eran las verdaderas riquezas de la Iglesia. El alcalde, furioso, lo mandó quemar sobre brasas para que muriera lentamente.

Según testigos de su martirio, Lorenzo, a cierto punto dijo a sus asesinos: “Ya estoy asado de este lado, voltéenme para asarme por completo”. Eventualmente dijo: “La carne esta lista, ya pueden comer” y falleció orando por la conversión de Roma. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Presence

It is difficult to be truly present to another. We speak of putting in an appearance or showing up. Even when we arrive, we are often distracted. We think ahead, or we review an unsettled past. Nonetheless, we are at our best when we truly show up. We are most fully ourselves when we are absorbed in something worthy of us: creative work, good conversation, prayer. In these instances we are wholly ourselves and wholly outside ourselves.

Elijah knew this kind of engagement. He was one of God's great prophets. In today's first reading, he follows God's command to journey to that most holy place, Mount Horeb. And there in great silence, Elijah encounters God.

As for Peter and the apostles, they discover the presence of God after the storm at sea. They and the sea and the winds are stunned into silent reverence.

Presencia

Es difícil estar realmente presente ante otros. Hablamos de aparecernos o dar signo de presencia.

Aun cuando estamos allí, estamos distraídos. pensamos en lo que viene, o revisitamos un pasado no resuelto. Sin embargo, somos lo mejor que podemos ser cuando estamos realmente presentes. Somos nuestro más completo ser cuando estamos absorbidos en algo digno de nosotros: trabajo creativo, buena conversación, oración. En estas ocasiones somos totalmente nosotros mismos y totalmente fuera de nosotros.

Elías conocía ese tipo de participación. Él era uno de los grandes profetas de Dios. En la primera lectura, él sigue el mandamiento de Dios de ir a un sitio sagrado, el Monte Horeb. Y allí en gran silencio, el humilde Elías encontró a Dios.

Y Pedro y los Apóstoles descubrieron la presencia de Dios después de la tormenta en el mar. Ellos, el mar y el viento se quedaron mudos en silencio reverente. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Building Faith Together Collections Now $730,764

$1,320,000

We have collected $730,764 in pledges so far in our Building Faith Together campaign.

There is a “thermometer” depicting pledges collected located at the back of church that we will update in $88,000 increments.

Even though we have reached our pledge goal, we are still accepting pledges to cover unanticipated costs from changes in fees on the renovation of the church.

I pray that everyone will rejoice in the graces and hard work of so many of our fellow parishioners and make a meaningful gift that will lead us through a successful effort.

Thank you and God Bless!

Children on the Run

"I would also like to draw attention to the tens of thousands of children...who cross the border with the US under extreme conditions...This humanitarian emergency requires, as a first urgent measure, these children be welcomed and protected. ~Pope Francis

Children on the Run, A Study Conducted by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees estimates that more than 50,000 children have risked a nearly 3,000-mile journey for safety at the border. Approximately 48 percent of these children are affected by violence from gangs and drug cartels and lack protection from the State. Other children make the dangerous trek to avoid violence in their homes, schools and community. Join with others in responding to Pope Francis's message about unaccompanied children.

Please pray for these children and their families, volunteer to accompany children in Chicago, or donate funds to meet the immediate physical and spiritual needs of the children.

Contact Sr. Lisa Polega at (312) 534-8104 to find ways to act on behalf of the children. Learn more about the Catholic Church's response to this issue at www.catholicsandimmigrants.org.

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
