Hunger Doesn't Take Summer Vacation. Neither Does St. Teresa's Outreach!

St. Teresa's Food Pantry distributes about 130 bags of groceries almost every Saturday of the year. And it takes 9 volunteers every Saturday to serve those who depend on us for groceries. During the summer months, it's very difficult to get the volunteers we need.

That's why we're asking you to please sign up for a summer Saturday now! Help us keep our schedule filled and help us serve our Food Pantry guests.

It's so easy to sign up. Go to VolunteerSpot at <http://vols.pt/AFsRya> to browse volunteer openings, and pick a date. Be sure to click the green "SAVE" button. You'll get an automated confirmation email and an automated reminder. With VolunteerSpot, it's also easy to remove or switch a date if your summer plans change.

Fiscal Year (07/01 - 06/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income, versus expense. Total income includes Sunday collections, Christmas, Easter, fundraising, and miscellaneous donations.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- A big THANK YOU to all who participated in our GiveCentral push over the past few months, we have been able to increase collections over 5%. Thank you, all donors, for your dedication to the parish.
- Please contact the Business Manager, Erica Saccucci with any questions at esaccucci@stteresaparish.org. Our financials are also available on our website at www.st-teresa.net.
- The next Finance Council meeting is to be decided.

“All my bags are packed, I’m ready to go...”

Going on vacation? Not on GiveCentral? Are you taking us with you? No?! What do you mean no? Ok, ok. We'll miss you. Please help us remain financially stable during this vacation season by maintaining your financial commitment to the parish. Automated giving through Give Central is an easy way to ensure our collections do not dive when attendance is low. If you have already signed up for automated giving, please be sure your credit card information is up to date. Call the office at 773.528.6650 to get help or offer to take us on vacation. Register at www.givecentral.org.

Treasures from Our Tradition

When you are thinking about traditions in the Church, 1563 is a “watershed” year. The Council of Trent began a reform of the liturgy that put an end to old practices and set many of our present practices in place. For the first time, engaged people were absolutely required to appear before their parish priest, and to exchange consent in his presence along with two witnesses. To this day, Catholics are obliged to this form, namely: to marry another Catholic in the presence of a priest (or deacon) and two witnesses, unless dispensed from the law. The Council really didn’t forbid customs and ceremonies that added life to the celebration, but the mood of the times was dark and somewhat austere. Practices like the blessing of the marriage bed or using a canopy for the nuptial blessing started to fade away, as did the custom of bringing the presents for the couple to the church and the addition of fiddlers and jugglers to the procession. The Council of Trent tried to preserve local customs, but the long-term effect was to standardize celebrations everywhere in the world. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Jesús promete a sus discípulos una vida en abundancia (Juan 10:10). Él desea lo mejor para nosotros y quiere que estemos bien en todos los aspectos de nuestra vida: familia y amistades, trabajo, economía, salud, etcétera. Sin embargo, Jesús también nos promete la persecución y el maltrato (Marcos 10:29; Mateo 5:11; Lucas 6:22; Juan 15:18).

La vida abundante es bella pero nunca fácil. La vida cristiana es como toda vida humana; tiene momentos de tranquilidad y de tempestad. Así como un día nos brilla el sol, otro día nos sacuden los vientos y nuestras pequeñas lanchas parecen inundarse.

No hay que desanimarse o asustarse cuando lleguen estas tormentas. Más bien, hay que recordar el Evangelio (Marcos 4:35-41) donde Jesús duerme en la barca de sus discípulos. Es interesante el detalle de Jesús quien, cansado y tranquilo, duerme mientras el mar sacude a la barca y a los discípulos. Menos mal que se les ocurrió recurrir al Señor. Y tú, ¿qué haces cuando el viento sopla y la vida te estremece? No temas, despierta a Cristo a quien llevas en tu corazón. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glitz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

The Wind and The Sea

El Viento y El Mar

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Los que conocen bien el Lago Superior le tienen un saludable respeto, y siempre están alerta sobre sus caprichosos cambios de ánimo. Muchos barcos hundidos y muchos botes hechos astillas son testigos de lo que el lago puede hacer cuando está de mal humor.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos evocan memorias de ese lago, del poderoso río Mississippi o del océano mismo. ¿Quién, fuera de Dios, podrá controlar esas aguas poderosas, o imponerles límites, diciendo “Hasta aquí llegarás”? El lago que describe el Evangelio de hoy era un lago en el que se levantaban súbitas tormentas, en las que los vientos huracanados agitaban olas enormes.

Pero estas fuerzas tan poderosas se someten a la voluntad de Dios. Los marineros y los pescadores le tienen un saludable respeto al poder de las aguas. Pero más todavía respetan el poder del Creador del viento y del mar. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

About Self-denial, St. Teresa said...

Even in sickness itself and these other occasions the prayer is genuine when it comes from a soul that loves to offer the sickness up and accept what is happening and be conformed to it.

Faith Over Fear

“Why are you terrified?”—Mark 4:40

The very first words out of the mouth of the angel Gabriel when he speaks to Mary are “Do not be afraid.” The Bible seems particularly intent on repeating that statement, almost like a mantra. A scripture scholar tells us, for example, that these same four words are spoken 365 times throughout sacred scripture!

Perhaps you’ll remember also the beautifully soothing passage from the Gospel of Luke in which Jesus tells his followers not to worry, but instead to place all their trust in God. According to one translation, after pointing to the wildflowers, Jesus says, “If God gives so much attention to them, don’t you think he’ll attend to you, do his best for you?” He ends this calming passage by saying: “Do not be afraid. ... You’re my dearest friends” (Luke 12:32).

Why so much emphasis on this single emotion of fear?

Here’s an answer by psychiatrist Edward Hallowell: “Toxic worry is a disease of the imagination. It is insidious and invisible, like a virus. It sets upon you unwanted ... stealing its way into your consciousness until it dominates your life. As worry infiltrates your mind, it diminishes your ability to enjoy your family, your friends ... because you live in fear of what might go wrong. It undermines your ability to work, to love, and to play.”

What he’s trying to communicate to us is the importance of trust. He is asking us to choose faith over fear.

Fear also cripples your ability to become transformed — which is the whole purpose of the Gospel and of the coming of Jesus Christ into our anxiety-ridden world.

Jesus is adamant: We cannot move forward in faith until we have learned how to deal with our fears.

In today’s Gospel, when Mark describes the “violent squall” and the “great windstorm,” it sounds a lot like the fears we encounter every day. According to the American Psychological Association, the most common “waves breaking over the boat” of our lives are: job pressures, money concerns, health issues, and relationship worries, including divorce and loneliness. After these come the matters of media overload and sleep deprivation.

And then there are our deeper fears: Am I enough? Can I survive all the things that scare me?

Living with any of these fears can easily cause us to scream out along with the disciples in today’s Gospel: “Do you not care that we are perishing?” Jesus’ response to this question is very important for us to look at. He doesn’t scold. He doesn’t dismiss our terror. Instead, he demonstrates both his intense love for us and his awesome power over all our fears by simply speaking three words: “Peace, be still.” And the winds cease.

What he’s trying to communicate to us is the importance of trust. He is asking us to choose faith over fear. It’s not that he doesn’t understand how all-consuming fear can be. He will experience it himself in his agony in the garden. But, just as he trusted his Father there, we are invited to do the same.

He’s asking us to bring our fears to him. Lay them at his feet. Shout them from the top of our lungs — all the time trusting that Jesus both cares and has the power to bring us through them. That same trust will then grow a hundredfold the more we remember his consoling words: “Do not be afraid. ... You are my dearest friends.”

Our faith will tell us that as “dearest friends,” we are not left alone, that we are infinitely cherished, and that those same three words Jesus spoke can be said trustingly by each of us: “Peace, be still.”

Seeking a Leader

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
