Fiscal Year (07/01 - 06/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet met our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income, versus expense. Total income includes Sunday collections, Christmas, Easter, fundraising, and miscellaneous donations
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- Please contact the Business Manager, Erica Saccucci with any questions at esaccucci@stteresaparish.org, or Matt Donner, our Finance Council chair. Our financials are also available on our website at www.st-teresa.net.
- The next Finance Council meeting is on January 18th at 7:00pm.

Please help us remain financially stable during the rest vacation season by maintaining your financial commitment to the parish. Automated giving through Give Central is an easy way to ensure our collections do not dive when attendance is low. If you have already signed up for automated giving, please be sure your credit card information is up to date. Call the office at (773) 528-6650 to get help or offer to take us on vacation. Treasures from Our Tradition

This New Year's Eve, at the turning of the year, you may catch a glimpse of the old year, a cartoon figure of a hunched old man with a sickle, Father Time. Where else but in this column could you learn that this is in fact a pope? December 31 was in the old calendar the feast of St. Sylvester. Legend says that Sylvester healed the Emperor Constantine of leprosy, and presided at the liturgy of baptism for the grateful emperor. In 314, he was chosen pope, and it fell to him to organize the peacetime church, free at last from persecution. He founded the Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome.

In northern Europe "Sylvester Night" is a time of great parties with eating, dancing, and singing—recalling perhaps the joy of the church in the fresh air of Sylvester's papacy. In Poland, there was great fear as the year 1000 approached that an immense dragon would devour the earth and set fire to the heavens. The people prayed earnestly to St. Sylvester, trusting that the saint would not permit such suffering on his feast day. They've been celebrating ever since!

Many New Year's customs have pagan roots, like the British "First Footer" tradition. The idea is that the first person setting foot into your house in the new year determines the luck for the year ahead. The ideal first footer was not a bit like old Pope Sylvester, but rather a tall, dark-haired man carrying the right gift. A handsome first footer meant the year ahead would be pleasant, and if he carried bread or a shovel of coal there would be food and warmth in the future. Who will be your household's first footer? — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

El primer domingo después de la Navidad celebramos la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Los latinos somos un pueblo muy unido en familia. Para nosotros es más que un pequeño grupo compuesto de padre, madre, hijos e hijas. La familia para nosotros los latinos es un conjunto grande de abuelos, abuelas, tíos, tías, primos, primas, compadres, comadres, suegros, suegras y otros más además del padre, la madre y los hijos. Para los latinos una fiesta que celebra la familia de Jesús es la cosa más natural del mundo.

Extrañamente esta fiesta no es muy antigua. En realidad es una celebración que data de comienzos de la época moderna en el siglo XVII. Antes de estas fechas la familia de Jesús casi siempre era entendida como compuesta por Jesús, María y Ana (la madre de María). Se daba por hecho que José estaba por allí. Pero en el siglo XVII muchos perdieron sus padres pues tenían que ir a las fábricas a trabajar. Por eso el magisterio instituyó la conmemoración de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José para recordar a los padres cristianos su deber ante sus hijos y su esposa. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright © J. Family Life

Family life is sacred, but it is not without trial. Perhaps this is the most important message we can glean from today's readings. If Jesus, Mary, and Joseph can trip up sometimes—can disconnect—then we shouldn't find it surprising when such things happen to us as well. And parents everywhere (children, too) can probably relate to—and take some solace in—the Gospel's account of Mary and Joseph after Jesus explained why he stayed behind in the temple. They heard his words, Luke tells us, "But they did not understand what he said to them" (Luke 2:50). Amen! Nevertheless, Jesus does go back home with them, and continues to thrive under their care.

Vida Familiar

La vida familiar es sagrada, pero no faltan las dificultades. Este puede ser el mensaje más importante que encontramos en las lecturas de hoy. Si Jesús, María y José pueden tropezar de vez en cuando — desconectarse— entonces no nos debe sorprender cuando eso mismo nos ocurre a nosotros también. Y los padres dondequiera que estén (hijos también) pueden ver el parecido —y hasta consolarse— con el relato bíblico que habla de María y José después de que Jesús les explica porqué se quedó atrás en el templo. Escucharon sus palabras, nos dice Lucas, "pero ellos no comprendieron lo que les acababa de decir" (Lucas 2:50). ¡Amén! Sin embargo, Jesús sí se va con ellos para la casa, y continúa creciendo bajo su cuidado. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Bring Those Bottles Back

Beginning on this weekend, St. Teresa of Avila will participate in the Baby Bottle Project benefiting The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland.

This non-profit organization directly assists families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material and spiritual support through counseling, clothing and monetary provisions, prayer and other aid. Each year the three Chicagoland locations of The Women's Centers handle 5,000 appointments with expectant mothers.

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you, fill it with your spare change, and return it the week of January 4th.

This is a simple, but crucial fundraising effort for The Women's Centers. Please return the baby bottles; they are recycled afterwards.

Thank you for supporting The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland.

Clothes Urgently Needed

Every week many men are deported from Broadview Detention Center in only the clothing they were detained in: summer clothes, sleepwear, etc.

As a parish community of St.

Bring your donated items to St. Teresa after any Mass between December 29th and January 3rd.

This project is organized in collaboration with the Office for Immigrant Affairs of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Around the Table

At the very start of his novel Anna Karenina, Leo Tolstoy writes, “All happy families are alike; each unhappy family is unhappy in its own way.”

That famous observation holds the truth that it is not peace and tranquility that makes a family, but adversity, struggle and suffering. These inevitable challenges are what make families unique, strong and interesting. Children find their own values by negotiating with family demands and gifts. We become who we are through our families.

This seems especially true of the Holy Family as a template for our own. Though it is surrounded by mystery and miracles, the story is a universal one — small-town, hill-country couple have a baby in the most difficult of circumstances, become refugees, then return as immigrants. Their experience blesses every household, the hard work in and out of the home, the struggle for survival, the need for community and religious faith.

The story also blesses the anxieties and losses inevitable in family life as children grow up and depart. Parents have their children on loan, and giving them up is hard, especially when the children face resistance and cruelty as Jesus did. Mary is fixed in our hearts as not just a mother but as the Pietá, a woman who lost her human son to his divine mission to reveal new life by his death. She gave birth to Jesus twice, in his life and at his death, then became mother to his disciples and then mother to us all.

Jesus knew temptation and the full weight of the flesh, so he could redeem everything about us by his own transformation on our behalf.

Joseph, silent, obedient to dreams and angels when his choices had become unbearable, modeled the fidelity and determination Jesus showed as an adult. Joseph, entrusted with a woman he could not possess and a child who was not his, is the provider and protector of all our families, a good man who emptied himself into salvation history.

In today’s familiar Gospel story of Jesus lost in the temple for three days, we see a foreshadowing of his death. Joseph, his guardian, witnesses the extraordinary gifts this boy displays at his bar mitzvah. He must have sensed the dangers that lay ahead. He taught Jesus everything he knew, then departed, leaving Mary and Jesus as widow and orphan. Joseph’s humility was to accept his role, no more and no less. A simple carpenter lays the first plank of the church.

Jesus defines both human life and divine destiny for all of us. Yet he was born a baby and raised in a family, went to school, did chores, played childhood games with friends. He helped his father in his work, his mother at market and in the house.

He learned by listening and imitating. He knew passages of scripture by heart. He learned fairness and compassion for everyone, even failures, beggars and sinners. He became a master storyteller because he watched farmers in their fields, merchants, builders and fishermen at work. He listened as people told jokes, gossiped and judged one another, or forgave and encouraged. He witnessed how power and money could benefit or abuse people. He saw violence and hypocrisy, but also gentleness and courage.

As Hebrews 5:8 says, “Son though he was, he learned obedience through suffering.” Jesus knew temptation and the full weight of the flesh, so he could redeem everything about us by his own transformation on our behalf. The Holy Family encompasses our families, all of us. This Eucharist is us seated around the family table, sharing life with Jesus, Mary and Joseph.
