World's Smallest Block Party

Plans are underway for this year's "World's Smallest Block Party", slated to take place in early September.

We are currently recruiting for the planning committee, seeking volunteers with an interest in decorations, entertainment, raffle, food service, kids' activities, and more!

For more information please contact Sara Hock at saramhock@gmail.com.

Refugee Ministry

Thanks to the generous financial support of the parish we will begin sponsoring our first refugee family later this month.

We do not have a lot of information yet, but in the meantime, there are a few ways to help:

Diaper and Shoe Drive: Baby diapers in any size are needed for refugee families in Chicagoland. Diapers may be placed in the basket in front of the altar. Our shoe drive for immigrants is ending this month. If you have NEW soft-soled shoes to donate, with no buckles or laces, please drop off shoes by May 29th.

Furniture Needed: Our refugee family will move into their apartment on June 1st and it needs to be furnished. If you have lightly used furniture that you are willing to donate, contact the parish office.

Parish Transformation

Over the past few months, a group of 20+ parishioners have gathered to discuss the mission and vision of our parish and to create action plans for living out our vision.

For details on the Parish Transformation process, including survey results, visit our website, st-teresa.net.

Fiscal Year (07/1 - 6/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet met our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income, versus expense. Total income includes Sunday collections, Christmas, Easter, fundraising, and miscellaneous donations.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- Please contact the Business Manager, Erica Saccucci with any questions at esaccucci@stteresaparish.org, or Matt Donner, our Finance Council chair. Our financials are also available on our website at www.st-terea.net.

It is not the length of time spent in prayer that benefits one; when the time itself is spent in good works, it is a great help in preparing the soul for the enkindling of love.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Around the turn of the fourth century, Augustine, still fairly fresh from the baptismal waters in Milan, was elected bishop of a tiny city in North Africa, Hippo. He told his people, “While I am frightened by what I am for you, then I am consoled by what I am with you. For you I am a bishop, with you I am a Christian.” He had his priorities right, and also knew that everyone coming from the water arises with a ministry, a specific role, in bringing about God’s kingdom.

If we were asked to purge English of Greek vocabulary, we would gain an insight into key ministries in our church. Bishop, from the Greek episkopos, would become simply “overseer;” priest, from the Greek presbyter, would become “elder;” and deacon, from the Greek diakonos, would be “servant.” Each title stands in relationship to all the baptized, serving the community, helping it to be the Body of Christ. In our deepest tradition, each of these ordained ministries is attuned to help us become our best selves, to hunger and thirst for the coming of God’s kingdom. The goal for each one of us is to be able to recognize the presence of Christ in worship and in service. Although only some of us are ordained to ministry, each of us is called to ministry. — Rev. James Field, Copyright

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Este domingo la Iglesia celebra la Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Este dogma acerca de la realidad de Dios es la clave para comprender la verdad de la religión cristiana. Mediante el poder del Espíritu Santo el Padre envió al Hijo como Salvador del mundo. Estas tres personas son un solo Dios.

No es una doctrina fácil de comprender y mucho menos de pintar en arte sagrado. Sin embargo muchos artistas latinoamericanos han intentado pintar simbólicamente la verdad de la Santísima Trinidad. En muchos casos imaginan al Padre cargando a Jesús en la cruz y soplando sobre él el Espíritu en forma de paloma. A veces Padre e Hijo están entronados sobre las nubes soplando el Espíritu mutuamente y las alas de la paloma tocan los labios de ambos. En algunos casos el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo son tres cabezas que salen de un solo cuerpo. Seguido los tres tienen el mismo rostro distinguiéndose solo por el color de sus vestiduras o los símbolos que cargan. — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

The Journey of Faith

We are on a long and eventful journey. Today's readings for Trinity Sunday succinctly cover the depth and breadth of our human travels.

The very beginnings of our journey are revealed in the reading from Proverbs. God's plan filled with divine wisdom was born before the earth was made. In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of his own personal journey. He has come from the Father and will return to the Father. Only then will the Advocate—the Spirit of Truth—take us onward.

This does not diminish the fact that the journey will be hard. The very setting of the Gospel is the night before Jesus died. As Saint Paul writes to the Romans, "[W]e even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope" (Romans 5:3-4).

Ultimately, our human journey is modeled by the Holy Trinity—a family of love among Father, Son, and Spirit that we are all called to emulate. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Viaje de Fe

Estamos en un viaje largo y lleno de acontecimientos. Las lecturas de hoy para el Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad cubren sucintamente la profundidad y la amplitud de nuestros viajes humanos.

Los comienzos de nuestro viaje se revelan en la lectura de Proverbios. El plan de Dios lleno de sabiduría divina nació antes de que la tierra existiera. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús habla de su propio viaje personal. Él ha venido del Padre y volverá al Padre. Sólo en ese momento el Paráclito —el Espíritu de la Verdad— nos llevará hacia adelante.

Esto no disminuye la dificultad del viaje. El contexto mismo del Evangelio es la noche antes de la muerte de Jesús. Como san Pablo les escribe a los romanos, "Nos gloriamos hasta de los sufrimientos, pues sabemos que el sufrimiento engendra la paciencia, la paciencia engendra la virtud sólida, la virtud sólida engendra la esperanza" (Romanos 5:3-4).

En última instancia, nuestro viaje humano está modelado por la Santísima Trinidad —una familia de amor entre el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu que todos somos llamados a emular. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Caring, Connecting Ministry

At St. Teresa Parish, when times are tough, you're not alone. We like to think of our parish as caring about our world, our neighbors, and each other. We need to put that into action.

A group of parishioners is meeting to plan how we can hear from each other in times of need and offer assistance -- prayers, cards, calls and even casseroles.

Jubilee of Mercy

Dear Father Latzko,

This letter comes with my thanks and hearty congratulations to you, your parish staff and the entire St. Teresa of Avila community for raising pledges exceeding your 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal parish goal of $32,987.94. You have my deep appreciation and respect, and I wish you continued success.

The people of St. Teresa of Avila under your dedicated leadership have responded generously to the Annual Appeal, clearly demonstrating their willingness to bring the power of God's mercy to a world in need. Please convey to your community my admiration for their willingness to sacrifice in a way that benefits others and transforms the world through Christ's loving presence. I am inspired by their sense of responsibility for others, a sentiment that is shared by all the many beneficiaries of their generosity.

Please let the people of St. Teresa of Avila know that I am looking forward to continuing this important work with them, and at the same time pledge good stewardship of their sacrificial gifts to the Appeal. I will remember them in prayer and at the Lord's Table. Their prayers for me are much appreciated, and I am heartened by their remembrance of me.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop Blase J. Cupich

Fit with Frank Begins June 4th

We are starting a weekly fitness club with Fr. Frank beginning June 4th!

In effort to support Fr. Frank's training for El Camino in October, Fit with Frank will meet at 10:00 am Saturday. If we have a high turn out, this will be a regular event throughout the summer.

We will run to nearby Oz Park (0.7 miles away) to participate in interactive drills for 30 minutes.

Following the training, we will run back to St. Teresa to congregate with Fr. Frank to discuss Faith & Community.

Join us for good exercise and a great time to get to know Fr. Frank.

Take the St. Teresa Invitation Cards Challenge

ST. TERESA OF AVILA
CATHOLIC PARISH EST. 1889

In the spirit of church transformation, St. Teresa Parish is looking for new, innovative ways to invite people to join our faith community.

This week you will find St. Teresa invitation cards in all of the church pews. The purpose of these cards is to provide you with an easy, convenient way to share details about St. Teresa Parish with family, friends, or even a stranger.

The invitation cards are conveniently sized to fit in a purse or a wallet, so you can take them with you everywhere you go.

Here's the Challenge ...

We would like to challenge each one of you to find at least one person in your life that you can invite to join the St. Teresa Parish family!

With your help, we can spread God's love beyond the walls of the church and fulfill our vision of being a true missionary parish.

Won't Sing a Note? Find Out Why

St. Teresa of Avila parishioners are invited to attend the Great Books and God book club at St. Vincent de Paul Parish. Here is the announcement for the June 7th meeting.

Join the Great Books and God Book Club on Tuesday, June 7th at 6:30pm, when we discuss Why Catholics Can't Sing by Thomas Day (2013 Revised Edition, Crossroad Publishing Company), an informative and entertaining critique of liturgy in the Catholic Church.

Every once in a while a book is published that falls into the category of "must" reading. Thomas Day's, Why Catholics Can't Sing, is that book. It is "must" reading not only for church musicians and the clergy, but also for all Catholics who care about the liturgy. It is an excellent survey told in a clear style and an interestingly humorous manner.

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
