Stewardship

June 5 — June 11

Page Two

Avila in Action

Stewardship is rooted in the idea that all we have is a gift from God, and with grace we gratefully give back to God from what we have been given. In the same way the Church teaches these principles, the Church itself strives to live by them. St. Teresa of Avila parish has historically given 3 percent of our collections to charities outside of our walls.

This year, the Stewardship Committee along with the Finance Council have made a prayerful decision to increase our giving percentage to 6 percent, and to seek input from the parish on how the funds are distributed. This initiative has been named Avila in Action. Parishioners may nominate a charity of their choice to receive Avila in Action grant funds.

Details and applications are available on our website at st-teresa.net. If you have any questions, give me a call or an email.

Hospitality Hosts Needed!

We are currently looking for volunteers to host hospitality after Masses from June through September. This is a great way for your family to help make St.

Teresa a welcoming community. You can host alone or with another parishioner or family. Please consider participating. Thank you for sharing a spirit of welcome and for helping to build community at St. Teresa.

9am Refreshment Host: Sign up directly at <http://vols.pt/XV1s5m>. Questions? Contact Mairead Reidy at mairiad.Reidy@yahoo.com.

6:51 Club Dinner Hosts: Email Sara Hock at saramhock@gmail.com to volunteer.

Refugee Ministry

Through the generosity of parishioners, we are able to sponsor a family through Catholic Charities.

Our donations assist with the cost of rent, furniture and basic necessities while the family transitions to the United States.

Our volunteers will assist the family in learning English, navigating the city of Chicago and adapting to our culture. Here are three ways to help:

Diaper and Shoe Drive: Baby diapers in any size are needed for refugee families in Chicagoland. Please place the diapers in the basket in front of the altar.

To Volunteer: robrien@stteresaparish.org

Parish Transformation

Over the past few months, a team of 20+ parishioners have gathered to discuss the mission and vision of our parish and how to live out our vision.

For details on the process, including survey results, visit our website, st-teresa.net.

HUNGER WALK

Join us on June 25th for an easy 5k walk along the lakefront to raise funds for our food pantry. Each participant earns our pantry a credit worth 3 bags of groceries. Babies and non-walkers count too! Make a donation – our pantry receives a 20 percent match. See Page 9 for more details.

Visit st-teresa.net/volunteer to browse and sign up for a selection of recurring volunteer opportunities.

Fiscal Year (07/1 - 6/30) Comparison to Date

- In the graph above you will see that we have not yet met our budgeted expenses with our Sunday collections. We are on budget with our total income, versus expense. Total income includes Sunday collections, Christmas, Easter, fundraising, and miscellaneous donations.
- Our goal is to fund all operations and expenses from the weekly collections.
- St. Teresa's annual fundraisers assist in meeting funding gaps. It is the Finance Council's and Fr. Frank's goal to increase weekly giving to meet our ongoing expenses, and use the proceeds from fundraisers to fund special initiatives and outreach programs of the Parish.
- Please contact the Business Manager, Erica Saccucci with any questions at esaccucci@stteresaparish.org, or Matt Donner, our Finance Council chair. Our financials are also available on our website at www.st-terea.net.
- The next Finance Council Meeting is Monday, June 20th at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Unless Professor Einstein's theory of relativity can be translated into any useful kind of time-travel, most of our clues about life in the early church will have to come from ancient letters and ancient prayer texts. A prayer text from a dusty library may yield, for example, an understanding of what "presbyters" actually did. We have such a prayer from the early third century from the hand of Hippolytus of Rome. While our modern prayers derive a great deal from his, some of the practices of the ancient church have fallen away. In his day, bishops were chosen by the people, and the other bishops merely consented. Presbyters, by contrast, seem to have been chosen by the bishops. This makes sense, since it allowed the bishops to hand-pick their most trusted advisers.

It seems that bishops were at first reluctant to share their presiding at the Eucharist with presbyters. In fact, by the time of the fourth-century church's growth spurt in Rome, the bishop sent deacons out with fragments of the host from his Eucharist to drop into the chalices of the presbyters at the outlying eucharistic celebrations. We still have a vestige of this fermentum in the Mass today, a reminder of the early bishops' desire to give a powerful sign of the unity of all celebrations of the Eucharist with their ministry, and a clue to their reluctance to delegate a sacramental ministry to the presbyters. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo "apóstol de Brasil" fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupí, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina. Eventualmente fundó el Colegio Jesuita de São Paulo de Piratinga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el "santo volador" por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: "Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buena nuevas" (Isaías 52:7). — Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glez, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Hope and Life

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

Esperanza y Vida

Las Escrituras del hoy nos cuentan la historia de dos viudas. La primera lectura relata la difícil situación en la que vivía la viuda con la que el profeta Elías se quedó y el Evangelio cuenta la historia de la viuda de Naín, en cada una de estas historias a cada viuda el hijo único de ellas murió. En la cultura de esos países en ese tiempo, el hijo era el sustento para la viuda y quien además continuaba la descendencia familiar que era igual a la inmortalidad. La viuda cuyo único hijo hubiera muerto perdía toda esperanza.

Elías y Jesús son los restauradores de esperanza; ellos devuelven la vida a sus hijos. San Pablo, metafóricamente hablando, revivió de la muerte a la vida cuando él se convirtió después de la llamada de Dios de la que él habla en la segunda lectura.

¿A qué están llamados los cristianos hoy en día? Quizá no podemos revivir de la muerte, pero quizá podemos reanimar la esperanza de un padre o una madre soltera. Quizá no podemos convertir a un persecutor como Pablo, pero si abiertamente hacemos vida el Evangelio en nuestras vidas, podríamos tocar una vida con la Buena Nueva.

Caring, Connecting Ministry

At St. Teresa Parish, when times are tough, you're not alone. We like to think of our parish as caring about our world, our neighbors, and each other.

We need to put that into action.

A group of parishioners is meeting to plan how we can hear from each other in times of need and offer assistance -- prayers, cards, calls and even casseroles.

Please contact Mary Russell for more information at mary.russell842@gmail.com

Wanted: Boxed Cereal

There is limited availability of cereal from the Greater Chicago Food Depository, and the St. Teresa Food Pantry is in particular need of weekly donations of all kinds of boxed cereal.

Hunger Walk Details

The 31st Greater Chicago Food Depository Hunger Walk is on Saturday June 25th. Your participation in last year's walk funded about half of our Food Pantry's operating costs for the year! Please lend your support again this year. Here is how you can help:

Help by Donating

If you are not available on June 25th, you can be part of this team effort by making a donation. No amount is too small. All donations to the team come to us in full, and the Greater Chicago Food Depository (GCFD) will match 25% of the first $5,000 we raise. To donate to the St Teresa Team go to:

<https://www.crowdrise.com/st-teresa-of-avila-food-pantry>

If you are writing a check, please make the check out to the Greater Chicago Food Depository and write in the memo line Hunger Walk, St Teresa of Avila Food Pantry Agency A01459. You can turn checks in to the parish office or pass them to Mairead Reidy or Lisa Hanzelka.

Help by Walking

Join the St. Teresa Team on Saturday, June 25th at Jackson Park for an easy, family-friendly 5k stroll at Chicago's beautiful and historic Jackson Park in Hyde Park on the shores of Lake Michigan. The St. Teresa team will meet at 8 am at the Divvy Blue Bike Stand near the registration table close to where the walk starts (6300 Lake Shore Drive/East Hayes Drive). We will step off together at 8:30 am

If you are not able to walk but would like to come out and support the efforts of the team you can join the cheerleading section! Every registered walker counts toward our fund-raising total.

There is no charge to walk. St Teresa's Food Pantry gets a $12 credit at the GCFD for every person we register and bring to the walk: from age zero to 100 -- age and mobility don't matter. For St Teresa to receive the food credit you must register each member of your family/party at: <https://www.crowdrise.com/st-teresa-of-avila-food-pantry>

This is easier to do this year and up to 10 people can be registered at one time. The website will indicate that there is a fee to walk but you need only add St Teresa's agency number (A01459) as the promotional code to have all 'fees' waived.

Getting There

Limited free parking is available in two lots – the first is close to the start of the walk at E. Hayes Drive and Lake Shore Drive– the second is across Lake Shore Drive at the 63rd Street Beach lot. Both are a short walk to our team meeting point. We will hire a bus to get us there and back if there is interest. We would leave St. Teresa's parking lot at 7:00 am and return at 11:00 am after the Walk finishes. We need to have 37 confirmed bus riders by June 14th. Please contact Mairead Reidy at mairread.reidy@yahoo.com as soon as possible.

Thanks for your support!

Reaching Out

I often wonder what is going on in the virtual reality games that many people enjoy so much. That same kind of “reality” is present in countless videos and movies that bring in mega dollars at the box office.

One of the facets of these entertainments is the unreality that characters are killed, and then reappear alive to continue their involvement in the plot. The question arises: How do these omnipresent virtual reality entertainments influence our understanding of actually lived reality?

Is life cheapened when it ends and returns with no explanations or consequences? The level of violence in all segments of society would seem to indicate that some people have a reduced understanding of what life is and what is the value of human life.

What would today’s children think of a dramatization of the scene in today’s Gospel? They would find that a dead young man returns to life and continues where he left off. What’s different in that from the media they are used to?

The real situation and the meanings of this scene may be lost on them. They may be lost on us, too, having heard this story for so many years. It seems so familiar and doesn’t jar us into awareness that a truly dead person is brought back to life through the power of God in Jesus.

What is first proclaimed in

Right now you and I, too, are called to be Christ to the widows and hurting people of our day. We’ll see the needs and sorrow.

this passage from Luke is that Jesus is moved with pity upon seeing the mother of the dead man. That is really important. Jesus says first off, “Do not weep.” Jesus has mercy on this woman, a widow, who is mourning the death of her only son. In that society, a woman without a husband or son would be left destitute. Jesus is not going to let that happen.

The next thing that happens is that Jesus goes forward and touches the casket of the dead man. This action took courage and disregard for his own reputation. The Jewish law forbade anyone to touch the casket of a dead person. Jesus would be reprimanded for not obeying the law. However, Jesus’ compassion for this mother and her desperate situation overruled this prohibition of the law.

Finally, Jesus speaks to the dead person: “Young man, I say to you, get up!”

The dead man sat up and began to speak. At this point, the Gospel says, “Jesus gave the man back to his mother.”

Was it awareness of his own coming death and of his widowed mother’s loss that moved Jesus to respond mercifully and dramatically to the loss and sorrow of this mother?

In the second reading today, St. Paul tells of his long journey to learn Christ Jesus after he had spent many years of his life persecuting Christ in his followers. Coming to accept Christ was a complete turnaround for Paul. Previously Paul would have been scandalized by Jesus’ conduct in this scene today. The converted Paul, however, would be ready to follow in Jesus’ footsteps in his encounters with sorrowing people.

Right now you and I, too, are called to be Christ to the widows and hurting people of our day. We’ll see the needs and sorrow. We’ll reach out — even if others won’t understand or agree with our actions. We will bring life to loss and death. Jesus’ ministry of compassion and mercy will continue through us.

Our Mission Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love, for the salvation of all people. We are a stewardship parish. Three percent of our operating income is shared with other missions.
